We all go through loss and changes to our environment, whether it is a human family member, to friends or our beloved companion pets. Love is love, it's a universal language of heartfelt emotions within all species.

Allow to go through the stages of loss, if it is yourself feeling the pain. This emotional pain will come in waves, so beware of this intense emotion, accept it for what it is, don't fight it or fear it. Over time these waves of emotions will become less and less. Thoughts will arise when feeling intense emotional loss, this is normal, be aware of being in that state, and don't buy into going deeper with this emotion. If we do, we will feel worse, and question ourselves about how this happened, feeling guilt or anger or blame.

Animals don't have an ego pain body, so they do accept what has happened without questioning or blaming or anger. However, they do still grieve from loss of the human or other species companion. Both animals and humans have been known to die or give up from a 'broken heart'.

We do hope that the homeopathic formula we have created will be of great benefit so we can go through this difficult time with more ease. We also have a Set of 3 (AN274) emotional formulas for – starting with dosing with the - HAMPL Denial 50ml (1.7oz), then the HAMPL Anger 50ml (1.7oz), and finally... HAMPL Acceptance 50ml (1.7oz)

If you feel the need to seek a counsellor, please do. I also find listening to Eckhart Tolle CD's or book, really helps calm the spirit, and give more clarity.

I also find (if your open to this), is to connect with the animal or pet, and call their name, ask just simple yes or no questions (you may get words, or you may get a picture or you may get a feeling of joy etc – or, ask a professional to do this for you (below)
